▪ Maryam Rajavi's speech at the great gathering of the Iranian resistance in Paris

July 21, 2017

Dear compatriots!

There is a force in you that has made Velayat-e-Faqih helpless with your resistance and protests.

Yes, it is a time of aggression and progress

Thus, O children of our homeland! wake up!

Establish battlefields and resistance.

▪ The Justice Movement shakes the massacre system - Maryam Rajavi's Message on the anniversary of the 1988 Massacre

July 29, 2017

I call on the brave and insurgent youth all over the usurped homeland to protest in order to force the leaders of the regime to publish the full names of the massacred and the whereabouts of their graves and the names of the executioners of this massacre.

▪ Maryam Rajavi's message on the occasion of the beginning of the new academic year

August 18, 2017

Over the past year, students in many universities have repeatedly protested. Throughout the past year, Tehran and the other cities of Iran have witnessed admirable gatherings and demonstrations by teachers, students and retirees.

Students and academics, aware of the great internal and external crises that have besieged the regime, are beginning a new era of movement and struggle against the regime.

At the beginning of the school year, I call on the young generation and the honorable teachers and professors of Iran to sue Iran on behalf of the heroes of the year 1988 and to resist and protest as widely as possible against religious tyranny.

It is up to you to encircle the rotten regime by intensifying your protest and resistance.

It is up to you to form the centers of insurgency (aka Riot Hubs) and resistance by creatively using your living and studying environment in order to establish Hezar Ashraf (one-thousand Ashraf)

Encourage resistance against the prevailing reactionary culture and relationships in the school and living environment.

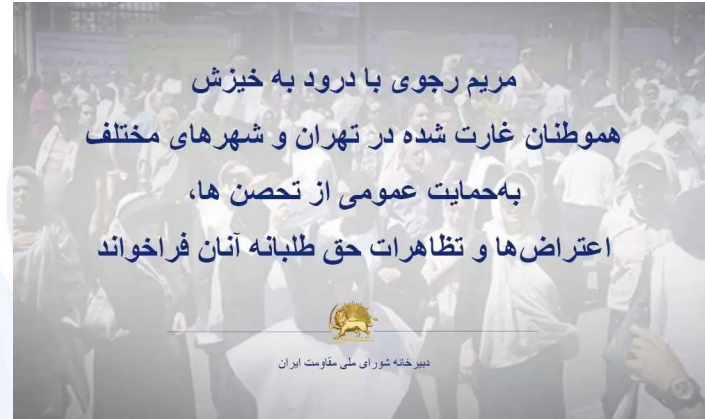

▪ “Maryam Rajavi’s message on the occasion of the international day against execution:

The uninterrupted cycle of executions to maintain religious tyranny”

October 9, 2017

And we call on our compatriots, especially the youth, to resist the policy of execution and killing. “The campaign is not for execution; it is part of the campaign not for the regime of Velayat-e-Faqih and the flag of freedom to free Iran from the clutches of Zahak of our time (a character in Iranian emic stories_ symbol of resistance against tyranny and cruelty).”

▪ Maryam Rajavi calls for public support for sit-ins, protests and right-wing demonstrations of plundered compatriots

October 23, 2017

Maryam Rajavi entered the uprising of her looted compatriots in Tehran and various cities and called for public support for their sit-ins, protests and right-wing demonstrations.

Maryam Rajavi saluted today’s courageous demonstrations in Tehran and the general uprising of compatriots whose savings across the country had been looted by institutions affiliated with Khamenei (Iran's Supreme Leader) and the Revolutionary Guards (IRGC), with the help of government agencies, both during Rouhani's administration and before that: The courageous slogans of today's demonstrations against the heads of the judiciary and the executive and the repressive forces of law enforcement and security of the Mullahs are a flame of public desire to overthrow the infamous system of Velayat-e-Faqih.

Maryam Rajavi called on all compatriots, especially the youth, throughout Iran to support the plundered compatriots and other deprived and oppressed groups and their right-wing protests and efforts to spread it.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: I call on all my compatriots to join the “roaring waves of freedom”

November 4, 2017

Dear compatriots! My brothers and sisters!

Do not leave the insurgents and the army of the deprived and looted alone in the streets. Now is the time for workers, farmers, marketers, employees, teachers, doctors and nurses, and professors and all walks of life to support them. This is an uprising that belongs to all the captive and freedom-loving people of Iran. Do not miss any opportunity to support and join the heroic and brave women who are fighting in the streets and shielding their bodies. Wherever you can, sit-in and strike in factories, offices and workplaces so that the world can see the Iranian public protesting against the disgusted clerical rule and hear the voice of the people in chains.

The uprising that you have waged is an uprising for freedom, democracy, equality and the separation of religion and state. It is an uprising for social justice and it is a movement and an uprising rather than victory.

- Maryam Rajavi: The Iranian uprising is the beginning of a period of progress

December 4, 2017

Your courageous uprising proved that a thousand centers of insurgency and battle are the correct answer to the boiling conditions of Iran and the readiness of society for uprising.

You, the young rebels, my brave boys and girls all over Iran, have shown that under the pressure of a heavy and inhuman repression, uprisings can be ignited not once but hundreds of times.

Now this ability guarantees the continuation of your battle. You have found the secret of victory and freedom, and that is the expansion and continuation of uprisings, strikes and sit-ins. No power can stop your uprising from continuing. No whipping, torture or bullet can withstand the force of your hope and belief.

- Maryam Rajavi: From the Revolution of 1979 to the Uprising of 2018 - For Freedom, In the Name of Freedom, Towards Freedom

February 10, 2018

Take responsibility for the continuation and spread of uprisings. And now my point is that one by one you brave young people have a decisive role to play when you get organized. Many of you have played an active role in the proliferation of one, two, three, one hundred and a thousand Ashrafs, whether these centers are insurgents or are the best helpers to the insurgents, you can form more centers and organize the insurgency.

You can set up these resistance centers and councils in every high school, university, factory, office and neighborhood.

In this context, you can help the families of prisoners and martyrs of the uprising with local organizations or individually. You can share the experiences and guidance of the uprising with everyone.

The uprising and its continuation and expansion put thousands of duties and responsibilities in front of each of us. Surely each of you can take on some of these tasks.

You, the women, the youth, the workers, the toilers and the deprived, are the huge explosive force against the religious dictatorship. And at the forefront, your role is irreplaceable. So, enter the battlefield with all your might to spread and continue the uprisings and overthrow this regime and establish freedom.

I also want to emphasize that do not pay attention to those who speak of the power of the Revolutionary Guards. They have power when there is no uprising or protest. Their power is in a state where everyone has surrendered. But when each of you takes on a role in advancing the uprising, they become powerless.

And finally, I urge you brave young people to remember that your peers have shaken the dictatorship many times in recent decades.

And now your generation is embodying this message with the uprising. You have shown that uprisings can and should be carried out under the most severe repressions. You have proved that insurgent centers can and should be created

“The generation is desperate and thirsty for freedom

From Maryam Rajavi’s speech at the Iranian Resistance Summit in Paris – April 19, 2018 “

A generation eager and thirsty for freedom has risen. The insurgents and the insurgent centers have opened a new way.

You saw that the Varzans took control of the entrance to the city, the Kazerunis took over the streets, and the drivers and truck drivers took over the roads.

And did you see how the youth of Tehran in Lalehzar, Ferdowsi, Shush, Mellat and Ekbatan fortified the streets and faced the savage mercenaries?

This is the struggle of the Iranian nation to take over the whole country and to take back Iran from the occupying mullahs.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Call for support for popular protests

April 19, 2018

Maryam Rajavi:

The strike of bazaars and merchants in Baneh, Marivan, Saqez, Javanroud, Sardasht and other border cities, the brave uprising of the people of Kazerun, the mass protests of the people of Saman, the demonstrations of the looted in Tehran and Ahvaz and Rasht and other cities and the protests of Arab compatriots in Ahvaz He praised the cities of Khuzestan province that were arrested during the uprising in recent weeks and called on the youth to support the protests.

He said: "The continuation and expansion of protest movements and social uprisings, which are taking place despite the repressive measures of the clerical regime, shows the public's desire to overthrow the religious fascism that rules Iran."

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Simultaneous uprisings in different provinces; flames of the free will of the Iranian people

Date 2 May 1397

Arrests and killings, including the killing of prisoners under torture, do not affect the free will of our people. For a week now, the voice of protest and the right of the Iranian people has been heard from the brave people of Kazerun. Their cry is that we are men and women of war, and woe to the day when we are armed. This uprising reminded the brave sons of Kazerun who fought in the ranks of the Mujahedin. Commemorate the beheaded heroes of 1967 who rose from this city. Greetings to the people of Kazerun with those brilliant records in support of the great Mossadegh and by dedicating all those Mujahedin and martyred prisoners against the clerical regime.

The cry of the people of Kazerun, who say that our enemy is here, is the cry of all the people of Iran; Yes, the enemy of Iran and the Iranians are the occupying mullahs. We must get our dear Iran out of their hands. Greetings to the people of Kazerun, Isfahan and Ahvaz, who disrupted the clergy's religious sales in Friday prayers and humiliated the ruling clergy by shouting slogans at the enemy. The people of Baneh and Piranshahr have spread empty tablecloths in the streets and markets that are on strike. These tables are the message of tens of millions of impoverished and deprived Iranians. They are not empty, but full of angry people.

The solution is an uprising that erupted last month and continues until the overthrow of the mullahs. As Massoud Rajavi said, raising the torch of the uprising at any opportunity, any time and any place is an urgent revolutionary and patriotic agenda and duty.

I call on all compatriots to spread uprisings and show solidarity with the people who have survived in different provinces of Iran and to insist on the release of those arrested, especially the hundreds of compatriots arrested in Khuzestan.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: The release of the workers depends on the overthrow of the regime

April 30, 2018

Heroic workers,

With the spread of the protest movement, it is time to take a big step forward and focus your struggle against the root cause of looting and the misery of the workers.

You cannot hesitate and wait for the day when the right conditions will be provided on their own. These conditions are provided by your fighting force and the resistance of the brave workers to overthrow the regime. The way out is to rely on your own strength. The way is to be organized and organized, and the key to advancing against the blatant invasion of your life and your rights by the Wali al-Faqih regime and the Revolutionary Guards is to link your protests with the struggle to overthrow this regime.

So, wherever you are, unite with your other allies to form insurgent strongholds and do your best to stage uprisings.

Trying to achieve these demands is part of the struggle to overthrow the regime. So, provoke the workers of the production units across the country to protest and strike. Expand the current marches and demonstrations in different provinces with the same goal.

The united struggle of the workers is won in conjunction with the organized resistance, the insurgent centers and the Liberation Army, and in solidarity with the uprising of the peasants, the toilers and the deprived people of Iran.

▪ Ms. Maryam Rajavi: Greetings to the heroic people of Baneh who entered the fourth week of the strike

May 5, 2018

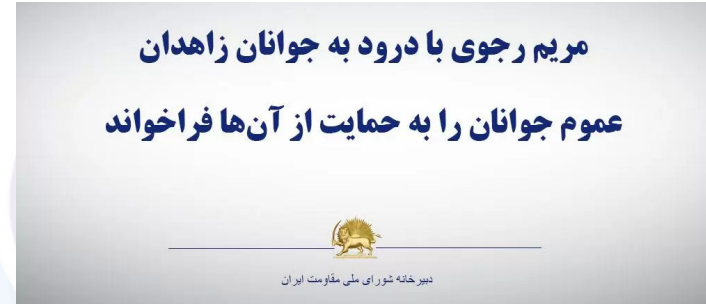

Greetings to the shop owners, the toilers and the farmers and the general public of the #Baneh hero who enters the fourth week of the strike despite the repression and all kinds of pressures.

- Maryam Rajavi's message to the Iranian Convention in the United States

May 5, 2018

The clerical regime has never been so overwhelmed by the crisis, and the conditions have never been so great for organizing and spreading the uprising. It is time to use every opportunity to support the uprising to overthrow the people.

- Maryam Rajavi greeted the youth of Zahedan and called on the youth to support them

May 27, 2018

Maryam Rajavi, greeting the honorable and free compatriots of Baluch and the students and youth who have risen to their feet in Zahedan today, said: "Shame and hatred on the clerical regime which is the main source of discrimination, division and enmity in Iran today." "He called on the youth in general, especially in Sistan and Baluchestan province, to help and show solidarity with the youth and students of Zahedan."

- Maryam Rajavi calls on all merchants, unions and bazaars to support the protesting shop owners of the bazaars

June 25, 2018

Ms. Maryam Rajavi greeted the rise of zealous shop owners in protest of the high cost, corruption and plunder of the Iranian nation's capital by the clerical regime, and called on all unions, merchants and shop owners across the country to support and join the protesting shop owners.

- Maryam Rajavi supports the protesters in Iran

June 27, 2018

"Greetings to the zealous shop owners in protest of the high cost and waste of wealth and national assets of the Iranian people by the Iranian regime for the escalation of the war and the export of terrorism and reaction and nuclear projects."

▪ Maryam Rajavi's message on the occasion of March 8, International Women's Day

July 2, 2018

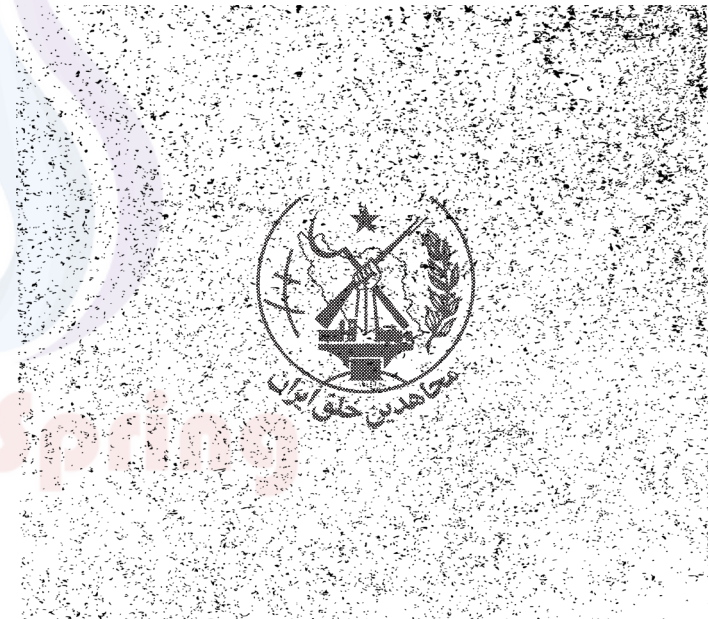

My daughters and sisters all over Iran

Now is the time to organize yourself. Let us build a force of battle and progress from your sufferings, from your tears and from your sorrows and longings. In the insurgent centers and the councils of resistance, that is, in your hands, the future destiny is formed.

Resist the practice of controlling profanity; In the face of savage patrols, the people were instructed to protest. Support child peddlers, also women peddlers. Organize protest movements against the aggression of the regime agents and take an active part in them wherever the flames of resistance and protest are ignited.

It is up to you, my knowledgeable and courageous sisters throughout Iran, to defeat this sinister policy. It is up to you to revolt against the culture of living from hand to mouth

November 19, 2018

Greetings to the leading women in #NishkarHaftapeh (Haftapeh's sugar cane factory), who die in today's passionate demonstrations with the slogan of a worker who does not accept humiliation. They shouted for freedom and justice. The leadership of women in the strikes of teachers and workers in Iran is proud and ignites the flame of uprising and justice.

Greetings to the workers of #Foolad_Ahvaz (the steel factory of Ahvaz) who today stood up with the cry of "Foolad, and Haftapeh's unity" and with the slogans of no threat or imprisonment, and death to this government of deceived people, their determination to realize their rights and their disgust with the whole clerical regime. They announced the anti-Semitism of the cleric

"Ms. Rajavi expressed her condolences for the death of Ruhollah Nazari, who was shot by the repressive forces in Sirjan, and called on all her compatriots to stand up for the insurgents and the rebellious and self-sacrificing youth of the homeland.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: The rebel Iran will rise up

November 20, 2018

The army of the unemployed and the hungry, the army of women and the oppressed, and those who have nothing to lose but their chains, will not give up and will not give up. They do not think about reforming and absorbing the regime and the IRGC, but they want to overthrow this regime.

Now it is the people of Shiraz, Shahriyar, Fardis, Kermanshah, Ahvaz and other cities who take control of areas of their city. The time has come for the liberation of all of Iran from the occupation and captivity of the mullahs.

The aggressive and fearless spirit of the insurgents in the face of the regime forces and the rapid spread of the insurgency in the provinces sends a terrible message to Khamenei.

- 1- I call on all my compatriots to take an active part in the commemoration of the martyrs wherever and in whatever order and to the extent they can.
- 2- It is a national and patriotic duty to support the people and to support the insurgent youth and insurgent centers.
- 4- Protests and strikes at any time and any place are necessary for the continuation and expansion of the uprising.
5. The enemy, with all its forces and the heads of its forces and its fasting people, is thinking of patrols, intimidation and counter-demonstrations, but it no longer has any effect. Do not be afraid of their magic and rant and rave. National solidarity and cooperation are the best answer.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Uprising and battle to overthrow the mullahs cannot be controlled

December 2, 2019

The November uprising showed that neither the regime nor the Iranian society could stand up to the raging flood of protests and social unrest. The situation is no longer a thing of the past.

This uprising cannot be eradicated and the regime will not be able to curb the uprisings and prevent the establishment of insurgent cities, insurgent centers and a large army of freedom.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Greetings to the students and the people of Iran

January 13, 2020

I call on the general public and the youth to support and show solidarity with the students, the insurgent centers and the insurgent youth.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Coronavirus disaster in Iran - for the protection of society and the country - for the health, security and future of Iran

March 6, 2020

1- Sign the suppressed anger towards the target regime. The initiatives and creativity of young people, especially students, are groundbreaking and deadlocked. It is we who must stand up for the protection of the country and the society and its health and security and its future. We must incite disgust with the regime and protest and strike as much as possible.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: We declare the International Women's Day in 1998 as the Women's Day of the November Uprising

March 4, 2020

4. Wherever you are, as a supporter of the insurgent centers and uprisings, think every day about what you can do to advance their war and put the responsibility of supporting the insurgent centers and the continuation of the uprising on your shoulders. Go for the uprising.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: You Iranian women can and must build victory

March 7, 2021

"Iranian woman stands up

On International Women's Day, I salute the bravery and resistance of my brave sisters and daughters in the insurgent camps, and I call on all of you, dear sisters, fearless girls and insurgent women, to spread the uprising to overthrow the regime and achieve freedom and equality.

You women teachers and nurses, student girls, women peddlers, housewives, and women workers and farmers!

The message of this excessive oppression, this accumulated pain and suffering, and the turbulent situation of Iran is that no force can stop the overthrow of the mullahs. The objective conditions and the revolutionary situation are provided, and it must take its direction and speed with your conscious and fighting force, with the leadership of your Mujahedin sisters towards freedom.

Iranian women have learned to rise up against misery, poverty, abuse and repression instead of showing patience.

Every obstacle and restriction and oppression that the regime imposes on you is a field for testing your wills.

Rebellion against all these obstacles. Surrender, fatigue and despair make the enemy bolder.

In the face of the regime, you have seen many times that every time you stand up and shout, the mullahs are forced to retreat.

The point is, you have to be more aggressive in the face of oppression and pain and suffering. As Massoud Rajavi has said, "Insurgents will win." And the fate of Iran is written with the uprising of its Mujahedin sons in the field of sacrifice and Mujahedin. Yes, at your hands, rebellious men and women.

You can and should build victory. You can spark protests and strikes.

You can set up insurgent centers and popular resistance councils, and you can encourage the surviving youth to form insurgent centers and support them in any way you can, and take responsibility for organizing and advancing the uprising. Your sufferings are a bridge to freedom, and on the other side of the bridge, what rises are you, the women who lead a free and equal society.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: The uprising of retirees in 23 cities of the homeland with the slogan of boycotting the elections

April 4, 2021

Protesters and insurgents are right when they are right:

We do not vote anymore because we did not see justice and we only heard lies.

Those who, without fear of intimidation and repression, have found the only way to get rid of empty tables are to rise up and shout in the streets.

I call on all compatriots, especially the brave youth of the homeland, to accompany and show solidarity and support the legitimate demands of retirees.

▪ Ms. Maryam Rajavi: The Iranian uprising ignited in Khuzestan, thirsty and suffering

July 27, 2021

But the uprising of the Iranian people, which this time erupted from thirsty and suffering Khuzestan, has so far covered at least 14 provinces. This is an uprising to overthrow; this is an uprising for freedom and an uprising is the key to victory.

Greetings to the generation of insurgents who have chosen to overthrow the bloodthirsty, reactionary, thieving and corrupt governing body and establish a democratic, prosperous and free republic in Iran!

Congratulations to the brave insurgents and insurgent centers of the Moassessan Five (the fifth declaration of insurgency issued by the MEK) who, as much as they could, set fire to various cities to prevent the transfer of Khamenei's assassins and blocked the relief route of the repressive forces. This is part of the efforts and actions and anti-repression operations that the insurgents have undertaken to promote the methods of uprising and the expansion and continuation of the great movement of the Iranian people.

This uprising, with hundreds of clear signs, has shown that Iranian society is in a revolutionary position and that there is a social readiness to overthrow the regime completely. But it is clear that the regime will not collapse on its own. According to Massoud, one must fight and resist a hundred times more, because in the face of such a regime, the only way to freedom is the army of freedom.

Yes, insurgents make such victories.

The young generation of Iran, girls, boys, insurgents!

You who have preferred the uprising to the darkness of stillness and despair, you who appreciate the precious essence of freedom and fight for it, the fate of the history of Iran at the end of a century of oppression for a free and prosperous republic is in your hands.

Your uprising from Khuzestan to Tehran, Tabriz and Isfahan is the glory of the resistance of a nation that does not accept humiliation.

The story of our history is uprising and resistance. The story of a rebellious people who fight from the heart of Tabriz with the weapons of Sattar Khan and constitutional fighters for a free and independent homeland. In northern Iran, the flag of Mirza Kuchak Khan and forest warriors is hoisted up.

It is our mission and commitment to bring this dark century to a victorious end. To greet the dawn of freedom, stand up all over Iran and raise the flags.

I call on all my compatriots to support the heroes and heroines of the uprising.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: Make the flame of the litigation movement lighter every day

August 23, 2021

“Compatriots, insurgent allies!

Greetings to you, honorable men and women, who carry the banner of the massacre’s lawsuit and the burning of Iran’s freedom on your shoulders.

In your demonstrations, the insurgents hear the voice of admiration and support of a people who say, “Strive for the establishment of the battalions of the great army of freedom;” This is the way to overthrow the mullahs.

And finally, I say to you, insurgent allies, to light the flame of the litigation movement every day and to advance the litigation movement until the poison of human rights is poured down the throat of Khamenei and his powerful regime.

▪ Maryam Rajavi: The first lesson is also the lesson of freedom and uprising for freedom

September 23, 2021

It is clear that achieving the most basic freedoms and rights of the teachers 'and academics' community, like other sections of the population, depends on Iran's withdrawal from the mullahs and is possible in connection with the national uprisings.

But your rebellious generation - the main force of the uprisings - as your leading representatives in the insurgent centers have shown, are more conscious and determined than ever to overthrow the Velayat-e-Faqih regime.

So, stand up for freedom and in the name of freedom. Organize in every school and university, expose the enemy mercenaries, expel and isolate the ration-eaters who maintain the rotten regime, and promote this truth among your people. That the regime of executioners can and should be overthrown and Iran liberated and settled. The bright future of Iran is in your hands. No repressive force can stand against the people who wanted freedom. Put your hands together. The hope and certainty of liberation is the roaring source of abilities
